National Seminar Event Report for Spain

Date: 13 January, 2014

Place: CEIM, Madrid

Number of participants: 35

Summary:

ADESEMA, in cooperation with CEIM and IFI, attended the National Seminar Event in Madrid to disseminate the project B-Entrepreneur aimed to support access to innovative good practice in training and education in the field of entrepreneurship in disadvantaged groups through business training and accompanying measures such as tutoring, volunteering, coaching, etc.

The meeting was attended by 34 people allocated a time to make a presentation about the relevance of European Projects and the importance of its effectiveness and scope. The majority of the participants had interest in entrepreneurial learning and new innovative curricula considering the current economical conditions for entrepreneurs (especially targeted in our country). We made a short presentation about B-Entrepreneur and a brief overview to show how to improve techniques, strategies and skills to future entrepreneurs.
